

Chapter 6

Conclusion

This Project is mainly designed for Cab Transaction Using Facial Recognition. The Project is an advanced system which is controlled through a web application based on XAMPP and web camera on the hardware front. The 30% implementation consists of successful scanning of faces with the web camera and then recognizing the faces with the local binary pattern histogram method and logging the data in csv files.